A Cœlestiall Prospect,

OR AN

EPHEMERIS

OF THE

Motions of the Planets, with the Lunar and Mutual Aspects, for the year of our Lord (being the first Year after Bissextile or Leap Year) 1661.

With general and monethly Predictions upon the severall Conjunctions of the Planets.

From whence are probable Conjectures, (not positive Conclusions) of the state and condition, and inclination of the present times.

Together with severall Eclipses of Sun and Moon.

Wherein is discovered a way for finding out the true Significator of a Thief, not brought before upon the English Stage.

By John Russell Student in Astrology.

whether good or ill appears to the Congregated people now, let time manifest.

The Year ends with turbulent Debates and many thwarting actions.

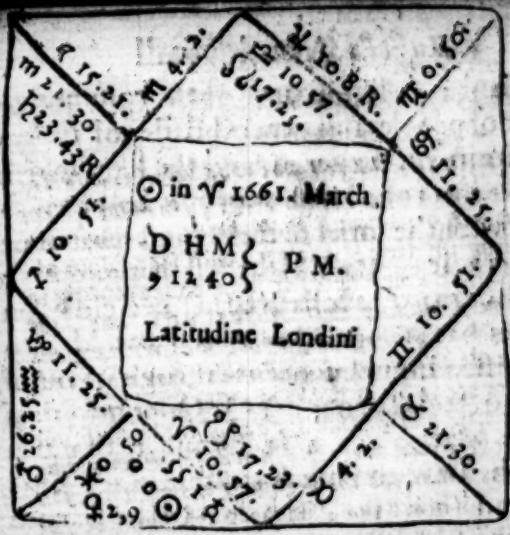

Deus omnia in melius mutet.

Friendly Reader,

IN my last Years Predictions you may read what transactions have lately been on our English Stage; for in my Observations for January I begun with these words, the supream authority of our English nation is saluted with scandalous aspersions, ill news, false Pamphlets, or some endeavouring to divide or disturb our Councels, &c. At that very time, the Rump was readmitted to sit again, which was with a great deale of trouble and discontent, &c. Further, you may read, that our Ministers are in great hopes of their Rites and Priviledges, at that time and against the day of the moneth, the supream Authority Declared that the best way for maintaining of Ministers was by tythes. In the beginning of February, you may read, that the Souldiers would be much discontented; at that time they mutined for their pay: But in the same moneth, you may read these words, some judgling or underhand dealing is discovered, the magistrates is much discontented, &c. God preserve from harm by fire, &c. which was just against the day of the moneth that the Lord Generall sided with the City, and brought in the Secluded Members. In marches observations, I write these words, false news and flying reports is frequent in the mouth of many people, &c. At which time there was so many lyes abroad, that a man could scarce believe the neaveſt of his Related friends. In Aprill I write, Why not an Ambassador &c. which was at that time that our gracious King sent Messages unto our Governours, &c. From June untill September, I write of severall debates, that would appear in point of Religion; much more I could say here of the verity of my last Years Prediction. But I refer them to the Book it self, where they may receive plentifull satisfaction.

From my House in Bentioners-alley in King street in Westminster neer the Red Lyon, this 27. of August die). 1660.

Astrologicall predictions on the affaires of Europe.

HEre I present unto your view the position of the cœlestial bodies, at that punctum temporis which the great Lamp of heaven enters into the first scruple of the Equinoctial signe Aries, which is as is above written; where I finde the regall signe Sagitarie Horrescopical, and Cor Scorpio, a violent fixt star, neere the Cusp thereof, and Jupiter Dominus ascendentis, is on the Meridian line in mutuall reception with Venus Commanders of the medium Cœli. This position and reception presages a sweet harmony between superiours and inferiours, and that Kings, Princes or chief Rulers will use their utmost means to preserve their subjects from what they may violently or unadvisedly by the provocation of their obstinate humours put in execution, ayming to promote the altitude of their sinister ends, not regarding the publike good. Here is Mercury lord of the nineth house, which is Dominus Religionis, in application to an opposition of Jupiter lord of the Aſcendant; or ſignificator of the common or vulgar ſort of people, and general Ruler of Judges Biſhops, Miniſters, Lawyers, and the like, which implies that the ruraill ſort of people to be much diſſatisfied with the form of Religion, that is or like to be eradicated within theſe Kingdomes: Will not Religion (as it hath been) be a cloak on the Sectaries backs and others (new turn'd) to cover the diſſembling hypocritical cogitations of their evill to temptations: This Oppoſition of Jupiter and Mercury, is a fore-runner of much conteſt in the Law and much trouble in accounts Writings and ſuch like; Hearken to the learned Haly, what he ſaith of ☉,☿,☌, in Par.8. folio 393. At ſi hæc applicatio fuerit de oppoſitione ſignificat quod erunt inter homines placita & verba pro chartis dubitationum quæ inveniuntur inter homines. But if this application ſhall be by oppoſition, there ſhall be among men many opinions, and words about Charters which ſhall be found among men: you that have purchaſed Crown, Colledge, or Dean and Chapters lands look to it; for now is the time you muſt give account unto your ſuperiours of your intereſt of the the ſame; for Mercury is poſited neer the Cuſp of the fourth houſe, the houſe of Lands, Tenements and ſuch like, and for the further confirming of this diſcourſe; here is Mars who is lord of the fourth houſe is in Quartile, unto that maligunant ſtar Saturn, who is Dominus ſecundæ, and poſited in the ſecond houſe;

which is the house of Riches, Estates, and all moveable goods; Now for as much as Saturn is a Terrestrial Planet by nature, and in Quartile to the lord of the fourth in the second it dictates, men shall receive much losse, dammage, in saturning things, viz. Houses, Lands, and such like, and to add fuell to fire, we have Cauda Draconis, vitiating the Cusp of the fourth house.

Si Luna jungitur cum Saturno significat in rebus multos labores, Tristitias & damna quæ accidunt hominibus ratione carcerum & similum & depopulationem villarum & comitatum à quibus discedent gentes & ibunt ad alia loca. i. when the Moon is joyned to Saturn there shall be much trouble, sorrows, and losses, in prison, and the like, and wasting of Villages, and Countries, and the people shall go to other places; and whereas the Moon joyned to Saturn in the twelfth house, which is the house of sadnesse, sorrow, and imprisonment, will make manifest this Aphorisme before this revolution be expired.

At si Luna fuerit debilis & peregrina & applicuerit infortuniis, & ille infortuna sint firma significat populo malum statum & causarum depressionem & debilitatem in suis negotiis, defectum sui victus & lucri & multas infirmitates in corporibus & occasiones quæ accident eis. Haly Astrol. Par. 8.

their businesse, want of food and grain, and many infirmities in their bodies and mislaps, which is confirmed by Mars, being in the second house denotes many Thefts, rapes, Robberies and the like, cozenning and cheating one another, those likewise that are intrusted with money or goods of any one shall prove false and deceitfull, and the people generally shall be driven to want, and shall be perplexed with losse, of the nature of Saturn & Mars, which will I fear obviously appear; God preserve us from losse by fire, &c.

Mars being in Aquary a humane signe, and afflicted as aforesaid, will elevate the spirits of men to many quarrels and discords, for he is the stirrer up of wrath, and violence, incensing one person against another; not onely the common sort of men will be dissatisfied, but great ones will stickle among themselves; for Sol is in application to an Opposition, Jupiter, which signifies that some great Cronies may be called to the bar of Justice, where they may meet reward according to their desert, for Sol is lord of the signe Leo, which is intercepted in the house of Death, &c. Will not the common or vulgar man participate of the evill influence of the aforesaid Opposition, for some of them that act against their Superiours must receive the like reward.

But if Jupiter in the tenth house shall be infortunate, there shall be goings to law commonly among men of that climate, and they shall have honour and reward, and love from their Kings, and Lord, and shall get gain from them; but if he be weak in Dignities, he cannot be so strong as to perform this effectually, and there shall be both law and discord among the people, &c.

Of the Eclipſes which will be obſerved of the inhabitants of this terreſtriall globe, we in England ſhall ſee but two of them, that is to ſay, the firſt of the Sun, and the laſt of the Moon; that of the ſun which will be viſible will appear on Wedneſday the 20. of March in the forenoon, 36. min. before 9. of the clock, middle 38 min. before 10. the end halfe an houre after 10. there will be above ſeven parts of twelve darkened by the interpoſition of the body of the Moon, between us and the Sun.

The ſecond is an Eclipſe of the Moon, on Thurſday the fourth of April between 3. and 4. a clock in the afternoon, at which time about a fourth part of the Moons body will be darkned, but cannot be ſeen here, in regard the moon is not viſible in our Horizon, at the time of the viſible oppoſition.

The

The third is an Eclipse of the Sun, on Saturday the 13. of Sept. but will not be seen in any of these Dominions, &c.

The fourth is an Eclipse of the Moon, upon Saturday the 28. of September, in the morning, the beginning 41. min. after one, the middle or greatest obscuration 48. min. after two; the end 15. minutes after 4. So that whole duration is two houres and 33. minutes.

Here followeth the position of the Heavens at the middle heaven, or greatest obscurity of the Sun Eclipsed, which happeneth the 20. of March this Year, 1661.

The Eclipse falleth in the Regal signe Aries; Englands Horoscope, and the lord thereof is elevated neer the degree of the medium Coeli, as if the spirits of the valiant English were undanted, not fearing the policy or stratagems of any neighbouring Nation, whether Spanyard, Dutch, or French: Is not Jupiter the Patron of Spain, and in Libra in opposition both to the luminaries, and Englands Ascendant, or will not some under the pretence of Justice or Religion be the Authors of much disturbance in these parts, and in those places under Libra, wherein Jupiter the promoter of this evill is posited; do not the language of the Stars inform me that there will be great contests in the Law and Divine matters, to the great disturbance of those parts or countryes subject to the influence of this solar Eclipse, and the chief the Actors will be persons of no mean quality; for Jupiter signifies Judges, Senators, Councellors, Ecclesiastical men, Bishops, Priests, Ministers, Cardinals, Doctors of Civill law, young schollars and students in the Universities, and the like, &c. These men I fear will feele the influence of this Eclipse in some measure or other; Is not Cancer Horoscopical at the middle of this Eclipse, which is the Ascendant of Holland and Scotland, &c. And is not Jupiter and the luminaries in Quartile to the aforesaid ascendant? what do we and the Dutch differ, let them be mindfull of the influence of the last solar Eclipse, that was in Aries, the signe where this defect happens; like presidents produce like Actions, for this Conjunction is in the middle Asterisme of the fishes, and ends in the house of Trade or Supremacy? shall we and the Dutch differ about fishing? can they not be content with that small portion God hath flotted them, but must they still be encroaching on our Dominions, if they do, let them beware, for we have the disposing of their significatrix; for the Moon which is Lady of Cancer their Ascendant is in Aries, disposed of by the Patron of England; so that in case any difference doe arise between us and the Dutch from the influence of this Eclipse, we shall bring them to our terms, as we did from the influence of the Solar in 1652.

The defect happens in a fiery signe, so that it will be violent, for Mars is chief ruler of this Eclipse, which is of a violent nature, &c. Conjunctio luminarium in signis Martis morbos inducit terminanter omnino ad mortem, & si fuerit in Ariete ducet infirmo extra mentem sine spe Rigel. Apho 84. An Eclipse or Conjunction of the luminaries in a signe belonging unto Mars, produces or is signifier of diseases tending unto death; an Eclipse in Aries (as this is) it afflicteth the sick, even to madnesse without hope of recovery, viz. Frenzies, Lethargies, Apoplexies, Defluxions of humours from the head, and many other mortall diseases doe most appear in the head; It was the opinion of the Arabian Astrologians, that if an Eclipse of either of the Luminaries were in a fiery Triegon, it declares the death of Heards, both smal and great Cattel, the banishment or imprisonment of some great man, hanging amongst the Vulgar, and beheading some persons of quality; it excites enmity andgreat jarring one with another, much dissembling with each other; the motions of some great army or company of men, horrible wars, slaughter of men, thefts, murder; many Towns depopulated, women dying by abortion, sharp Feavers, strange Apparitions in the Aire, epidemical Diseases by reason of scorching heat, scarcity of fruits, especially in those Countries which are subject unto the signe eclipsed, admirable mutations in many things.

Again, if Mars be the chief Ruler, or have most dominion of the Eclipse (as he doth of this) causeth general destruction, by reason of Drought: but properly among men, he raiseth wars, inward Seditions, Tumults, and Rebellions: Moreover he inducteth burning diseases, Tertian Agues, Eruption of the blood, acute diseases, violent deaths, and that especially among young men; also Combustions, Murthers, Impieties, Injuries, Violence, Rapines, Robbery, the constitution of the Aire will be extream hot, causing hot pestilentiall and corruptive blasts, &c. At Sea unexpected shipwracks by reason of Tempests; Plants, and Fruits will be corrupted, partly by excessive heat, and partly by sudden storms, showers, and ill windes, and those that are laid up to be preserved may be destroyed by fire, &c.

Me thinks I see the Scots dissatisfied in points of Religion, before the influence of this Eclipse be expired, which will be something above two years ere the effect will leave operating; the Countries

subject to the influence of this Eclipse are those under Aries, Libra, Cancer and Capricornus, viz. England, Germany, Scotland, Holland, and many other Countries, which for brevity sake, I omit; because I shall want room hereafter.

For discovering the true significator of a Thief.

HAving seen in Print a way (pretended the true way) for discovery the significator thereof, and that is this; If a Peregrine Planet be in an Angle, and behold the seventh house, he shall be admitted significator of the Thief. And the reason say they is, because he being void of all essentiall dignities, he may be supposed to be in a necessitous condition, and consequently shall prove the significator thereof.

To this I Answer, A Perigrine planet in an Angle shall not be admitted as Significator of the Thief, unlesse he afflict the house of Substance or his Lord, or part of Fortune, and have dignities in the house of Theft, viz. the seventh house. For unlesse he have Dignities in the house of Theft, he shall in no wise be accounted or condemned for a Thief, though he doe afflict the house of Substance his lord, or part of Fortune. And my reason is, that a man may be afflicted and have great losses, more wayes than by Theft, (do not the old Proverb say) that one losse seldome comes alone, but is accompanied with anothers;) for he may receive losses by his brethren, by his father, or the like, by his children, servants, or by death of friends, in his journeyes, preferment or Trade, &c. and many wayes more a man may receive losse and not by theft: so that you may see clearly, that that Planet which afflicts the house of substance, his lord or part of fortune, is not to be admitted significator of the Thief, unlesse he have Dignities in the house of Theft.

And as for the Perigrine planet in an Angle, I shall take him to signifie a poore honest man, for a man may be poore and honest, &c.

For discovering the true significator of the Thief, observe these following Apho. and it shall be as a Lantern and Candle to light you through the dark mists of your ignorance. First, if the lord of the house of Theft afflict the house of Substance, or his lord, then he shall signifie the Thief. 2. If the lord of the 7. be joyned to part of fortune, or if he afflict part of fortune, he also shall signifie the Thief. 3. If a Planet having exaltation in the house of Theft and afflict the Cusp of the 2. house, his lord or part of Fortune, he shall be significator thereof. 4. If the afflicting planet have triplicity in the house of Theft, he may signifie the Thief, if none of the aforesaid appear. 5. If Saturn or Mars shall have tearms in the degree of the Cusp of the 7. house (if you have the true degree descending) and afflict the aforesaid, and none of the other Aphorismes appear than the afflicter, shall be admitted to signifie the Thief. 6. If none of these aforesaid appear, then the lord of the 7. shall signifie the Thief, or the planet that is in the house of Theft, and shall have some essential dignities therein, &c. Thus in briefe I have endeavoured Astrologically to demonstrate the true significator of a Thief.

For

for if the true significator thereof be not discovered, tis impossible for an Artist to give a discription of a Thief. If any be dissatisfied or have any more true or readier way, I desire no longer to keep it secret, but make it of publick use: I do not write this with intention that I delight to resolve such questions, for I hate all thievish questions in regard nothing will satisfie, but the restitution of their goods, which at all times cannot be recovered, which is the main reason I detest such questions; otherwise I had inserted several examples for the proof above said.

The Use of the Tide Table.

FIrst finde the New Moon, Full or Quarter in the Almanack, then count how many Dayes are past either of those, and under the same number of days past, you see the time that the Moon will be South the same day; then look for the Haven or Port you desire, and where the houres and quarters stand before the same, there is it high water, so many hours and quarters before the time found; but where the houres and quarters stand after the place, there is it high-water so long after the time found; As for Example: January 10. that is five compleat dayes after the Full Moon, and in this Table I finde her South at four a clock, being 5. dayes after Full and underneath 5. I finde 4, which maketh full Sea at 4. a clock at Queenborough, but at Rye it is High-water 3. quar. before, at Gravesend an houre and a half after, and at London 3. houres after, &c
